We have updated the public release of Half-Life.

Changes in this update are:

- Fixed mouse not working correctly in VGUI1 based UI's, mods and TFC make use of this

. Patch notes 25 April 2019:

Added more indoor areas, vendors, crafting stations, and NPCs to Scrapyard, South Point Crossing, and Misfortune's Gate.

Fixed sound effects and particle effects at crafting stations.

The dialog at Misfortune's Gate and South Point Crossing may not make sense yet. I still need to add more cutscenes to progress the story.. Some ghosts didn't take our jokes lightly:

Hey guys!

We had some huge technical problems yesterday. First the update was buggy, then the Halloween email has bounced back a lot of you.

We are extremely sorry for that.

The update fix has been implemented quite fast and hopefully it wasn't such a problem for you. The email issue however has made a much bigger impact.

We have received your emails. We have three people chosen for the prize, however, the emails came our way quite chaotically, sometimes they just bounced only as IP numbers that couldn't reach us. We have checked a lot of stuff to be sure that the said three people are really the ones who should earn the prize, but to be 100% sure, we would ask you to forward the automatic reply you have received from our mailbox once again to Halloween@layersoffear.com. This will give us the last confirmation we need. If you guys think you were among the first to send the code, please reach out to us.

Sorry it transpired this way, sadly technology likes to mess up with people and yesterday it did that to us.

We hope you had fun searching for the keywords and enjoyed looking at what they did with your surroundings.

Also, Layers of Fear has a 25% discount starting from today :)

Best Regards

Bloober Team. Update 1.09 Released:
